ANZAC Fast Facts

Anzac Day, 25 April, is one of Australia's most important national occasions. It marks the anniversary of the first major military action fought by Australian and New Zealand forces during the First World War.

ANZAC stands for Australian and New Zealand Army Corps. The soldiers in those forces quickly became known as Anzacs, and the pride they took in that name endures to this day.

When war broke out in 1914 Australia had been a federated nation for only 13 years, and its government was eager to establish a reputation among the nations of the world. When Britain declared war in August 1914 Australia was automatically placed on the side of the Commonwealth. In 1915 Australian and New Zealand soldiers formed part of the expedition that set out to capture the Gallipoli peninsula in order to open the Dardanelles to the allied navies. The ultimate objective was to capture Constantinople (now Istanbul), the capital of the Ottoman Empire, an ally of Germany.

The Australian and New Zealand forces landed on Gallipoli on 25 April, meeting fierce resistance from the Ottoman Turkish defenders. What had been planned as a bold stroke to knock Turkey out of the war quickly became a stalemate, and the campaign dragged on for eight months. At the end of 1915 the allied forces were evacuated from the peninsula, with both sides having suffered heavy casualties and endured great hardships. More than 8,000 Australian soldiers had died in the campaign. Gallipoli had a profound impact on Australians at home, and 25 April soon became the day on which Australians remembered the sacrifice of those who died in the war.

Although the Gallipoli campaign failed in its military objectives, the actions of Australian and New Zealand forces during the campaign left a powerful legacy. What became known as the "Anzac legend" became an important part of the identity of both nations, shaping the ways in which they viewed both their past and their future.

ONGERUP COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT On Thursday 4th May the Shire of Gnowangerup is holding a Strategic Community Plan meeting at Yongergnow – 10.30 am to 12pm. The Shire will be asking participants to provide feedback on topics as outlined on the Shire's webpage; the Shire's level of service, big ideas for our future, priority issues and sustainable management for the Shire's buildings. By being involved in the Shire's ten year development plan, you can address issues that concern you, your town and your community. It is our chance to express our concerns, ideas and have a voice in their decision making. More information on this can be found on the Shire's webpage. The Ongerup Community Development Committee has a list of issues they are going present but also urges you to attend. The more community members in attendance the better it is for our town. For further information on the OCD's position please email at russell@wn.com.au.

The farmer met his nephew at the railroad station. "Uncle, I'm very glad to see you, he said. "That crate of chickens you sent me bust open just as I was going to take them out and they ran all over the place. I chased them through my neighbour's yard and only got back eleven." "You did okay," said uncle. "I only sent you six."

BUILDING ASSET REVIEW 2017

The Shire of Gnowangerup is in the process of reviewing its Building Assets and as part of this process are consulting with the community.

A copy of the current building assets with detailed information about Acquisition Date, Building Condition, Depreciation and Operating Expenditure can be obtained from the Shire office or downloaded from the Shire website www.gnowangerup.wa.gov.au

Residents and Rate payers are encouraged to consider the asset information provided and fill out the coloured sections appropriately.

Things to keep in mind when reviewing this document: The cost of maintaining our existing buildings, many of which are underutilised, each year totals $228,292.55 or 6.5% of rates. The cost of $228,292.55 each year over a period of 5 years equates to $1,141,463 million. Council would like to know whether some of this money could be better spent on improving existing services.

Please return your completed review to the Shire of Gnowangerup by 4:00pm Monday 1st May 2017. Emailed and posted copies are accepted and can be sent to 28 Yougenup Road Gnowangerup or gnpshire@gnowangerup.wa.gov.au
