Ongerup Playgroup every Tuesday 9.30-11.30am

Everyone Welcome By Everyone

Boy what a Playgroup day did we have this week.

We don't want to blow your minds dear readers.....

But. We. Were. Let. Out. Of. Playgroup!!!

ONTO THE ROAD!

Okay well the footpath if we are being precise but we were not just let out on foot but on our bikes and scooters! Seriously what were our mums thinking?? Yipee we say! Freedom we say!! Look out Ongerup!!!!

Of course as soon as we were out of the playgroup gate we took off, well those of us that were not contained in our prams or bikes where our feet don't quite yet reach the pedals and we are at the mercy of mum pushing us-sorry guys!

For us dudes and dudettes who could reach our pedals we were keen to make a clean breakaway from our mum's as soon as possible and ride our treadleys into the sunset and so we did.

The wind was in our hair, our dribble was flying past our cheeks and onto the person behind us, we could smell freedom, life was pretty great. Did we also mention we looked really cool?

Emilia was rocking the pig tails and pink bike with the cool coloured baubles on her wheels, George had one of his socks pulled over his jeans and Charlie's mullet was flying in the wind. Indigo rocked her rainbow inspired get up and the coolest scooter ever, April looked pretty fantastic in her spotted helmet, Zoe with her cool bike and Basti's cool blue shoes stole the show! We knew we must have looked pretty awesome when Mr Savage slowed down to go past us at a glacial pace- he was thinking how cool we looked we are sure! We bet we will see him out on his bike next week all inspired by seeing us, rocking a mullet, spotted helmet, rainbow inspired get up and socks tucked into his pants for sure! Your're welcome Mr. Savage! So wind in our hair and nothing but the road ahead we rode free, no worries in the world, just our mums in the background telling us constantly to 'keep left' 'keep left' 'slow down' don't ride into each other on purpose!' (that was George & Charlie) 'wait for everyone else' etc etc until we finally reached our awesome destination also known as Yongergnow.

We parked up our bikes really awesomely like the bikers do – well if bikers dump their bikes in a pile on the ground for their mums to trip over that is and went inside where Vicky and Ben gave us a tour of the centre which was fun! While we loved seeing the Malleefowl, it was the man up the ladder with the chainsaw making loud noises that really made our day. It was Mr Savage again-boy did we think he was awesome! Then we ate our fruit outside in the sun while our mum's attempted to sneak inside for a cup of tea and homemade cake (Thanks Dani & Bec) . George & Charlie thoroughly enjoyed the pineapple and coconut cake their mum ordered for herself to enjoy but was as usual too busy talking. So the boys concerned the cake may get cold and thus become inedible took it upon themselves to eat the entire plate!

Once we felt like we had terrorized the centre thoroughly we decided it was time to leave, we are pretty sure Dani & Bec's ears are still ringing from all our fabulous noise.

Back outside we donned our helmets, tucked our socks into our pants and hit the road, this time we took the back track so our mums could keep us off the streets for a bit longer- this town could not handle our awesomeness!

We zoomed off again but this time the mum's sent George & Charlie's mum to run with us – so we went extra fast of course, it was fun listening to her huff and puff behind us! Besides a slight pile up when Charlie decided to turn around in the middle of all the riders, we made it back safely to playgroup, everyone safe and we excitedly planned our next adventure –it is currently a toss up between the Le Tour de France or getting onto the next Crusty Demons DVD with our awesome riding skills, but we will keep you posted.

On a serious note, thanks to the 14 mums and 17 kids who came along for the morning, it was great fun and so nice to be able to catch up and a big thanks to Vicky, Bec & Dani for having us for the morning!

For any Playgroup enquiries please contact Kelly 'came to Playgroup woo hoo!!!' O'Neill 98282195.

Are you interested in a SEPWA DIY PA Course?

ASHER BUSINESS GROUP provides a wide range of services designed to help people and businesses avoid conflict or issues at work or at home. Our two most popular services include:

DISPUTE RESOLUTION (MEDIATION & NEGOTIATION)

"Dianne Madden from Asher Group was recommended to us to assist in resolving a complaint we had received from a client. The matter was complicated, a number of parties were involved and clearly our business was the "soft target" for compensation. We had spent numerous hours and consulted various bodies in an attempt to resolve the matter. When confronted with the prospect of legal action we were clearly out of our depth.

From our initial meeting Dianne was professional, highly organised, efficient and clearly well equipped to advise and act on our behalf, if necessary. She was consultative, offering informed advice, options and instructions whilst respecting our wishes and desire to reach an amicable conclusion for both our client and our business. We were happy with the outcome and only wish we had known of Dianne's services earlier."

Steve & Denise Amato, Owners of Bathroom Decor & Tiles, Albany

Conflicts can arise at home or at work, such as breakdowns in relationships or financial issues. Whatever the cause of your personal conflict, you can be rest assured that we can be there to help. Dianne Madden, our Personal Dispute Resolution expert can help individuals in areas of conflict that include:

- Resolving Community Disputes;
- Settle family succession planning disputes;
- Preparing claims, gathering evidence and negotiating on your behalf;
- Commercial & business disputes; and
- Property settlements.

Our goal is to help you and the other party achieve a mutually-beneficial agreement that will help you save time and money and keep you free from stress.

At the same time, make no mistake, businesses have crumbled as a result of minor misunderstandings that have snowballed into major problems. Any and all conflicts should be dealt with immediately by a professional.

Overall benefits of Mediation & Dispute Resolution are: solves problems, saves time, saves money, less stress, better health, more happiness and harmony, more productivity and better bottom line.

Professional help is important because as much as we want them to, problems don't automatically go away; giving a problem "time" just prolongs the agony and dealing with situation incorrectly can exacerbate the problem.

Mediation & Conflict Resolution is a complex and delicate process, which has taken years of skill and practice for a good mediator to refine and perfect. No matter what the problem, we can work toward a mutually beneficial solution through mediation and dispute resolution.

CASH FLOW FINANCE

Some of the most successful businesses have gone under as a result of cash flow problems. Don't let this happen to you. We can assist by helping you find and obtain the most cost-effective and suitable cash flow finance for your specific needs. We help with legal and procedural processes and we liaise with banks, legal and accounting firms.

The overall benefits of our cash flow finance services are: stay in business; grow with confidence; reduce stress and increase productivity and positivity.

For a friendly, obligation-free chat about our Dispute Resolution or Cash Flow finance services, please visit our website: www.ashergroup.com.au or call Dianne Madden on 08/9847-4996 or 0410 456 060.

YOUR MOMENT TO MAKE A DIFFERENCE

Census recruiting in your community!

Up to 2,300 Census Field Officers needed across Western Australia

Make a difference in your community and join Australia's largest logistical peacetime operation—the 2016 Census of Population and Housing.

This year's Census is on August 9, and the Australian Bureau of Statistics (ABS) is looking for dedicated, enthusiastic self-starters to fill more than 2,300 Field Officer positions across Western Australia. If you're tech-savvy, know your community well and are eager to make a difference, the ABS wants to hear from you.

Working on the Census is a great way to contribute to your community. The data you help collect provides an important statistical snapshot of Australia. It supports planning, policy and funding decisions for a range of local services and infrastructure—from housing and transport to health and education.

A few things have changed since the last Census. In 2016, most households will receive a letter giving them a unique login number and instructions on how to complete the Census online. Approximately 65 per cent of households are expected to complete the Census online however paper forms will still be available for households who need them.

Field Officers play a critical role by visiting households, encouraging online participation and ensuring everyone makes the count. And as a Field Officer, you'll earn around $21 per hour, receive motor vehicle allowances and enjoy flexible working hours. You will also be responsible for daily administrative tasks and the security of Census materials.

You'll need to be a good communicator, reasonably fit, licensed to drive and willing to travel and work independently. Field Officers will also need to have access to home computer and internet.

The positions are part-time and most of the work will be conducted during August and September. People from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply.

For more information or to apply, go to www.abs.gov.au/careers. You can also follow the Census on Facebook and Twitter.

Applications open on Monday, 2 May.
