TOWN RUBBISH CLEANUP Thank you to all the willing helpers who yet again braved the Sunday wintry conditions to clean up the museum and streets. There is always more to do - if anyone would like to cover the main road verges on their daily walk from the rubbish tip to the Pingrup Road T-road it would be hugely appreciated!

Yarroweyah Falls.

36 km south of Ongerup has excelled twice this wet year. This photo was taken by Jane Thompson on 9th August after a week of rain and the upper dam is full. We may have missed the big flow after 13.5mls of rain while in Albany. Thought the people who had never seen it or flowing larger than its usual trickle all year, would be interested. There is another water fall 150 m up stream but more

Presentation on The Associations

Incorporation Act 2015

Answering all your questions

@ Yongerghnow Centre 22nd September 11am—12pm

The Associations Incorporation Act 2015 (the new law) commenced on 1 July 2016 and now applies to all incorporated associations and clubs registered in Western Australia.

Yongerghnow-Ongerup Community Resource Centre are bringing you a presentation by Iris Thomas—Senior Regional Officer from the Department of Commerce

Iris will be discussing the changes to the Associations Incorporation Act 2015.

For example:

- How the new laws will impact existing incorporated associations
- Key changes to committee responsibilities
- The prescribed model rules; and
- The process for updating an association's rules during the 3 year transition period.

Ongerup Playgroup

every Tuesday 9.30-11.30am

Everyone Welcome

Hello dear readers, im sure you have been waiting impatiently to find out about what we got up to today at Playgroup. Im sure it is the highlight of your week reading about how cute and mischevious we all are, did we also mention some of us can talk in sentences which sometimes gets our mums in trouble..... case in point below.

On arrival to Playgroup this morning George and Charlie happily reported to Maggie that the Toompup South rd was still really boggy but their mum had managed not to drive into the bush this week. (George and Charlie's mum maintains last week on her way to playgroup when she left the gravel and drove into the bush she was just looking for Orchids). George & Charlie's granddad also found this story to be highly amusing as did Uncle Mat, their dad and all the people of Albany they met down York street a few days later- goodwork George & Charlie. Grandpa Campbell will have a field day with this information!

This week Maggie & Lillian's mum bought playdough and Kacie and Emilia's mum bought in muffins! Boy if there was a competiton to see who bought in the most yummiest thing to eat it would definitely have to be a tie. Though Maggie & Lillian's mum may have put a little too much salt in the playdough according to George but he said it was still delicious. We had a great time making playdough masterpieces, I think we were still on a roll from last week, our playdough sculptures were so amazing we even named them (sincere apologies readers but George & Charlie's mum cant remember any of our awesome names to list here for our playdough sculptures- probably because she was too busy talking as usual to pay close attention!). Luckily none of the mums had to fight it out to see who got to take home the playdough sculptures as we all had cleverly made one each. Phew no mum fights at playgroup this week! Always a good week when the mums are not out on the grass fighting we always say! ;)

We also had a lot of fun racing our cars down the ramp and hoola hooping as well as playing on the playground. A big welcome to Kirsty and Billy who came to have some fun with us. Hopefully you did not find us too loud and noisy (George and Charlie's mum we are looking at you!). Billy had a great time watching all the shennanigans going on, it wont be long before he will be able to join in!

Next week we are making toasties! If you like your toastie with gooey cheese, dribble and dirt feel free to call in for a picnic with us on the grass, we will have plenty and we love to share!
