NOVEMBER BOOK CLUB REPORT.

THE BOY BEHIND THE CURTIN BY TIM WINTON.

In this remarkable work of nonfiction, Australia's greatest novelist takes us behind the scenes, Sharing the extraordinarily powerful true stories that have influenced his view of the world and fueled his fiction. Sandy chose this book and because she was not well had to postpone the book club until a week later. So only five of us managed to make the date. But we still managed to chat and enjoy ourselves until after 11 p.m.

The absentees managed to send written reports: the overall opinion was the book was boring. Not many of us had managed to read every chapter, most of us skimmed it. One member felt he had written it as a money making venture and should not of bothered .One member felt he was very full of himself. We all thought it was extremely well written but he used words for the sake of it with not many of us understanding the meaning. Sandy is a diehard Winton fan and she even gave it a low score. Then we got down to discussing the December Meeting.

We will hold it on SATURDAY 9TH DECEMBER at my place 763 Ongerup/Pingrup Road starting at 11-30a.m. We have sorted the catering for which there will be a cost and its BYO.

Please bring a favorite book in a brown paper bag to swap. RSVP to Gail Vaux please

The book we will discuss is Mel Hawkins choice and we will vote the best book of 2017.

Thank you Sandy for the lovely nibbles and a yummy supper.
