DECEMBER BOOK CLUB REPORT.

NORSE MYTHOLOGY NEIL GAIMAN

Neil Gaiman has long been inspired by ancient mythology in creating the fantastical realms of his fiction. Now he turns his attention back to the source, presenting a bravura rendition of the great northern tales. In Norse Mythology, Gaiman fashions primeval stories into a novelistic arc that begins with the genesis of the legendary nine worlds; delves into the exploits of the deities, dwarves, and giants; and culminates in Ragnarok, the twilight of the gods and the rebirth of a new time and people. Gaiman stays true to the myths while vividly reincarnating Odin, the highest of the high, wise, daring, and cunning; Thor, Odin's son, incredibly strong yet not the wisest of gods; and Loki, the son of a giant, a trickster and unsurpassable manipulator. From Gaiman's deft and witty prose emerges the gods with their fiercely competitive natures, their susceptibility to being duped and to dupe others, and their tendency to let passion ignite their actions, making these long-ago myths breathe pungent life again

This book was our new member Mel Hawkins choice. We discussed the book on Saturday the 9th December at our Christmas Party, which was held at Curlew Creek.

The weather was perfect so 11 of us gathered. 9 Club members and two visitors.

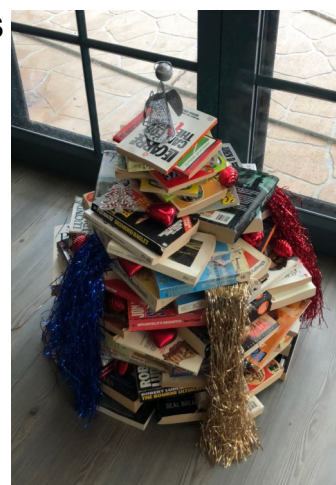

Due to the busy time of the year only two of us had actually read the whole book. Personally I found it an easy read but the author didn't fill you in on the complete story and I felt left up in the air with many of the stories. Roz didn't like it at all and the rest of the crew found it hard work.

We were lucky enough to have Jasper and Marnie visit so we presented Jasper with a book signed by us all. We then voted the best reads of the year. 1st was Wonder by RJ Palacio closely followed by Magpie Murders by Anthony Horowitz coming in 3rd was Tuesdays with Morrie by Mitch Albom. We then had a lovely lunch. I would like to thank Brooke, Leanne, Sandy and Mel for the nibbles and first course. Judy Kerse made a wonderful dessert cake in the shape of a book that was very impressive. We then did the book in the brown paper bag swap.....so we have something to read over the holidays. Thank you ladies for making it a great afternoon I think everyone enjoyed themselves.

Judy Major has kindly said she will have the first book club in February 2018.

She hopes to get the books to us early January.

I wish all the Club members a merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Christmas Cooking Day 2017

Saturday 9th December had us all at the CRC cooking up a storm. There was gingerbread and fruit mince pies galore! We had about 20 kids in attendance and a few extra adults to help out.

We started with rolling out the gingerbread and some plain biscuit dough, cutting it into all different shapes and sizes and then whipping it into the oven. Once the cookies were cooled off there was lots of fun had with the red and green icing. The older kids then put together some fruit mince pies to take home.

We all had a great day and can't wait for Christmas!
