FEBRUARY BOOK CLUB 2018

IN THE MIDST OF WINTER - ISABEL ALLENDE

Amid the biggest Brooklyn snowstorm in living memory, an unexpected friendship blossoms between three people thrown together by circumstance. Richard Bowmaster, a lonely university professor in his sixties, hits the car driven by Evelyn Ortega, a young undocumented migrant from Guatemala. But what at first seems an inconvenience takes an unforeseen and darker turn when Evelyn comes to him and his neighbour Lucia Maraz, desperately seeking help. Sweeping from present-day Brooklyn to Guatemala to turbulent 1970s Chile and Brazil, and woven with Isabel Allende's trademark humanity, passion and storytelling verve, In the Midst of Winter is a mesmerizing and unforgettable tale.

This book was Judy Major's choice, she handed it out early January and Monday the 12th February is our first meeting for 2018.

So on Monday night eight of us gathered at Judy's with three apologies. It took a little while to catch up on what everybody had been doing over the break. Then we got down to discussing the book. Only three of the ladies present had read the book the whole way through. They found the actual main plot boring and a little silly. What kept them all reading was the side stories of each of the main characters.

Personally I found the story quite depressing both in its characters and the plot, both left me feeling annoyed. I found the story of the main three characters over different time lines both past and present irritating. The constant toing and froing was like a film that had been badly spliced. I think it mainly scored 4-5 by those that were eligible to do so.

After much discussion it was decided to skip March altogether as it seem to be very full and hold May's meeting on the 8th of April. This is a Sunday we will start at 11.30am as May has a new deck and wishes to show it off. May is supplying the finger food and we are to bring the wine/champagne. We need 11 books now and please be reminded to bring your money to the meetings as the tin is very low and I have not paid for this book yet.

I will get the roster out as soon as I get it sorted Roz Thompson has kindly said she will do May.

I would like to thank Judy for an excellent night it was a great catch up.
