REAL LIFE SUCCESSION PLANNING, THE GOOD, THE BAD AND THE UGLY!

EVERYONE WELCOME!

Rsvp by June 1st to Ongerup@wife.org.au

Both these advisors have had involvement with their own family farm succession issues, together with extensive professional involvement with their farming client groups throughout Western Australia.

Join us from 9am - 2.30pm at the Ongerup Sporting Complex, morning tea and lunch provided by the amazing Michelle Harris from Tasty Treats Catering.

Morning Session 9am-12.30pm

- Understanding the basic legal, commercial and taxation issues that frame any succession plan
- Who are the people involved in the succession process and what is expected of them
- What are the objectives of the succession plan, what are the risks and what are the limitations
- How to approach/introduce succession planning into a family farming business
- Identifying personalities and agendas within the farming group and managing conflict and communication
- Managing risk that impacts succession planning objectives
- Real life succession planning stories - the good, the bad and the ugly
- Attendee questions, discussions, advice and brainstorming between presenters and attendees using real life or hypothetical examples

Afternoon Session 1pm-2.30pm

- Role playing succession plan scenarios
- Question and answer session directed to Ben & Michael on related issues within their areas of expertise:

FIGHT MND
IT TAKES PEOPLE

Last year combined sporting communities from Boxwood Hill and Lake Grace/ Pingrup had a very successful BIG FREEZE at Boxwood Hill. This year the Lake Grace/Pingrup Winter Sports will be hosting the BIG FREEZE on the 19th May and would love your help and support! MND has had a huge effect on both communities and we want to do what we can to help and show support! If you can't make it on Saturday you can still donate to the cause - go to <https://support-fightmnd.everydayhero.com/au/LGPFC1> and donate to this amazing effort.

BOOK CLUB REVIEW TABOO BY KIM SCOTT.

Taboo takes place in the present day, in the rural South-West of Western Australia, and tells the story of a group of Noongar people who revisit, for the first time in many decades, a taboo place: the site of a massacre that followed the assassination, by these Noongar's descendants, of a white man who had stolen a black woman. They come at the invitation of Dan Horton, the elderly owner of the farm on which the massacres unfolded. He hopes that by hosting the group he will satisfy his wife's dying wishes and cleanse some moral stain from the ground on which he and his family have lived for generations.

But the sins of the past will not be so easily expunged.

We walk with the ragtag group through this taboo country and note in them glimmers of re-connection with language, lore, country. We learn alongside them how countless generations of Noongar may have lived in ideal rapport with the land. This is a novel of survival and renewal, as much as destruction; and, ultimately, of hope as much as despair.

Monday night saw us gather at Roz Thompson's for the month of May's Book Club. We welcome Jill Bailey to our group; with one apology. Of the ten of us gathered, one had only read a few pages and one was 70% through the rest of us ploughed through it. For a book that none of us really enjoyed it certainly made for a lot of discussion.

We found Kim Scott was too flowery in his descriptions, his characters were not rounded or filled out and you were left wondering. We found the first chapter very confusing and it didn't come together until the end. We were surprised that so many of us had not heard of the Peace Park on the Phillips River near Ravensthorpe - some of us had heard about the massacre.

We liked Tilly, despised Doug the villain and would have felt better if he had got his just desserts. But overall most of us found it hard going and not an enjoyable read. As usual supper was amazing and we all enjoyed a great catch up. Next month it is at Brooke Hannig's Thank you Roz for a great night.

WHAT IS RECYCLING

Shire staff are often asked what should be placed in recycling bins and also what happens to the material in the bins when they are emptied.

Warren Blackwood Waste was the successful tenderer when the waste collection contract recently came up for renewal. Mat Webb from WBW has this to say about recycling:

"We have had a lot of enquiries recently from most of the shires we service, in regards to recycling material and where it ends up.

Aluminium and steel cans as well as paper and cardboard are easily processed and we are able to get those processed quite easily, through Remondis in Perth.

Glass has been an issue for a long time and there hasn't been a receiver for a number of years now. WBW uses it as cleanfill at our Kojonup landfill site so we encourage everyone to put it in the recycling bin.

In general, we encourage people to put the following items in the recycling bin:

- paper/cardboard/magazines, etc
- all plastics
- aluminium (alfoil wrapping)
- steel cans
- glass

The cleaner the material the better, but as long as there isn't still food or anything in the containers, it isn't a problem.

Grease, oil, etc on paper or cardboard is fine.

We sort all materials by hand at our facility in Kojonup, and encourage any Shire or interested residents to come for a look at any stage. The reason we accept materials other companies will not is because we have the ability to stockpile and are optimistic about recycling into the future.

If you have any questions or would like to organise a tour of our facility, please get in touch with us"

Ongerup Mobile Daycare

Hi Everyone!!

Welcome back to Term 2! We have now changed our day to a Friday and we are really excited to hopefully have some new kids come join us!

Our first week back we decided to trace the children's hands and make a lovely ANZAC wreath to display on our wall to teach the children all about ANZAC day.

The second week at Daycare we were extremely busy trying to make our Mother's Days gift for all our Wonderful Mum's. We hope you all had a Lovely Day on Sunday!

Two aerals meet on a roof - fall in love - get married. The ceremony was rubbish - but the reception was brilliant.
A elderly man remembers the good old days: "when I was young, my mom could send me to a shop with a single $, and I would bring back 5 pounds of potatoes, 2 breads, a bottle of milk, a piece of cheese and 10 eggs. Nowadays that's impossible – there are simply to many security cameras.

Museum Mothers Day Lunch

We welcomed a small crowd to the Ongerup & Needilup District Museum but last Sunday's fire ban put an end to the open campfire plan to cook the smoko of damper and billy tea. Tim and Vicki swung into action with camping gas stove and billy and handy home oven to cook the damper inside the wildflower shed.

Tim and Sue had lined up a panorama of old photos of Eldridge Street so we were able to do a virtual history tour and see the main street a la 1920's style.

There were some caravan visitors who took the opportunity to join us rather than drive on through into the dust storm. We had some old members join us - Susanne bought Kaye up from Albany and some locals were able to see the interesting sheds and displays that the museum has. So even if you have lived here for 10 years or so there is always an opportunity to come and have a look.

A couple of centenaries were noted - the bank building, now Tim and Vicki's home and the railway barracks within the museum, were both built in 1918.

We are needing 50 sq mm cement slabs to finish off the railway cart shed, if anyone might have any lying around. We have an offer of larger ones but would like to keep to the same size if possible. Contact Tim on 98 282282 if you can help.

Everyone welcome to our next meeting on Thursday 7th June at the museum - contact Judy 0427 356020.
