The P&C Committee is pleased to host a school breakfast on Friday 15 February commencing at 7am at the school, based on healthy eating and food in moderation.
On the menu we have –
* real coffee machine coffee for the adults (donated by Mel & Graeme Savage) as well as tea for anyone who doesn't drink coffee!
* fresh fruit and yoghurt
* a smoothie station – banana, strawberries and mango

* toast with vegemite or peanut butter
We would love to see as many parents (and DADS!) there as possible.
It would be appreciated if you could RSVP to me as soon as possible, so I can place a food order with the store.
We look forward to seeing you there.
Thank you

Most recently, Herb Faust Food was awarded the catering contract at Swan Valley's beautiful Houghton Winery, where Herb and his team thoroughly enjoy plating up lunch for diners from Wednesday to Sunday.

Relationships Australia. WESTERN AUSTRALIA

PROTECTIVE BEHAVIOURS

The Protective Behaviours program was developed in the 1970's and is now a mandatory part of the Australian and Western Australian curriculum.

- It aims to enhance problem solving and communication skills of children
- It encourages children to identify situations that are unsafe or potentially unsafe, and to develop practical strategies to counter these situations in order to preserve their physical and emotional safety.
- It focuses on addressing a wide range of personal safety issues perpetrated by known or unknown people, including being lost, bullying, abduction and all forms of abuse.

In this course for parents, we will look at strategies and resources that parents can be utilising at home to help build these very important skills into the lives of their children.

This Parenting Course is funded under the Families and Communities Programme by the Australian Government Department of Social Services.

Ongerup Farm Supplies and General Store

I wish to advise all clients and customers that Harry and myself will be away from the shop next week from Tuesday 12 to Saturday 16 of February. We will be in Perth, attending training and won't be available to answer phone calls for much of the time. If you need help, please text or email us and we may be able to help you by return text, or phone you back during lunch or smoko breaks.

Deb, Michelle and Jayde will be available to help you in the shop and with simple hardware and farm supplies requirements. However, if you need technical help to do with chemical etc, you may need to contact myself or Harry by phone or email.

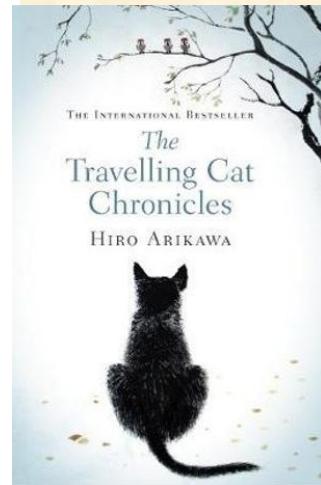

Unfortunately, no-one will be available for doing deliveries while we are away. If anyone is likely to need gas delivered in town, please let us know, so that we can do it on Monday before we go away.

I wish to apologise in advance for any inconvenience this may cause anyone. It will be business as usual the following week.

Regards Mick Creagh

Two great reads from your local library

Your local library is open five days a week with a great selection of fiction and non fiction books, and dvd's.
We can order in any special requests.

A quirky little book written from Nana the cat's perspective. Nana is a stray and happily sleeps on the bonnet of a van every day but when misfortune strikes he is rescued by the van's owner Satoru and happily settles into life as a domestic cat. Tragically Satoru must find Nana a new home, and they travel the Japanese countryside visiting old friends , none of whom Nana feels could take care of him.

This is a lovely easy reading book to curl up with for a couple of hours on the couch.

Based on a true story this book follows the journey of Lale who is sent to Auschwitz in 1945. He is lucky to be given the privileged job as a tattooist. Using his advantages to help his fellow prisoners, Lale meets Grita when he tattoos her arm and immediately falls in love. This is an uplifting story of love, brutality and hope set in the horrors of a concentration camp. A great read for those who like a bit heavier content in their books.

Media Release – 2019 Australia Day

This year's Australia Day celebrations took place at the Ongerup Sporting Complex. It was a great day for all with an approximate attendance of 80 people.

The Gnowangerup Police and Barry Savage assisted local community members to raise the flags and, as usual, fantastic music was provided by Pleun and Alan.

This year's winners of the Australian Citizen of the Year Awards were:

- Shelley Hmeljak (Community Citizen of the Year) – Shelley has done amazing things for our community, her work at the stillborn section and niche wall at the cemetery and recently her drive behind the Shop Local Campaign. Shelley has also spent many years as a Shire Councilor and Swimming Instructor.
- Anthony Swalwell (Youth Citizen of the Year) – Anthony has spent a lot of time at the Ongerup Bowling Club doing lots of various jobs and encouraging members to recycle. He has organized Keep Australia Beautiful clean up days in his community and helped out at the Wildflower Display when needed.
- Ongerup WIFE (Active Citizenship Award for a Community Group or Event) – The annual WIFE seminar was held in Ongerup, many hours of hard work and organizing went into the day to make it run smoothly. The event attracted 160 people from all over the state. The event made a significant contribution to the local economy and showcased the high quality of facilities and enthusiasm of the Ongerup community.

All of these awards are very well deserved, Congratulations to each of these community members/group for your amazing contributions to our community.

Thank you to everyone for taking the time to come and celebrate this special day and enjoy a lovely breakfast with your fellow community members.

Shelley Pike
Chief Executive Officer
