FRIDAY 17th MAY @ ONGERUP
FROM 6PM SPORTING COMPLEX

On 4 May was the final round of the 2018/2019 Albany Speedway season. Congratulations to Ongerup's own speed racer – Jake Langdon for taking out second place for the evening, in his rookie year. The night was dominated by the Langdon brothers after Paul Belfield had to retire in race three, but there was certainly no love lost between the brothers and sheep stations were on the line. Well done to Jake for a great start to his sprint

POSITION VACANT

BOOK CLUB REVIEW MAY 2019 LADIES IN BLACK BY MADELEINE ST JOHN. 13TH MAY 2019.

Set in the summer of 1959, when the impact of European migration and the rise of women's liberation is about to change Australia forever, a shy schoolgirl (Lisa) takes a summer job at the prestigious Sydney department store, Goode's. There she meets the 'ladies in black', who will change her life forever. Beguiled and influenced by Magda, the vivacious manager of the high-fashion floor, and befriended by fellow sales ladies Patty and Fay, Lisa is awakened to a world of possibilities. As Lisa grows from a bookish schoolgirl to a glamorous and positive young woman, she herself becomes a catalyst for a cultural change in everyone's lives.

This month's book was Roz Thompson's choice. So on Monday night 10 of us ladies dressed in black as was requested arrived at Roz's ready to have a great night. Roz had set the scene with some 1950's 60's props and a lovely spread of nibbles. First we spent some time catching up as this was the first time that most of us had been together this year.

Then we got down to the business of discussing the book. Some of us had seen the movie so were up to speed. This book generated lots of discussion even though most of us reckoned the actual story was rather bland. It led to rather a lot of talk about the old department stores that used to be in regional towns. For me personally, I loved it, my Aunt was a buyer in Aherns in Hay Street, and we were very friendly with a new Australian family so it brought back fond memories. As there were 10 of us it took some time for everyone to have their say and as we can't help ourselves we get off track frequently, so this led to rather a late night. This book rated 6 out of 10. Thank you Roz for a great night - supper was as usual superb. Next month's book is Caroline House's choice and she is hosting this in Marnie's house on Monday 10th June 8 p.m.
