ONGERUP MUSEUM We are in preparation mode for the 2019 Wildflower Display at the Ongerup-Needilup District Museum. The show will run from Saturday 21st September to Sunday 6th October and we would love to see any new helpers on our roster for inviting visitors in during this time. No previous experience necessary—enquiries to Sandy 0428 282941 or Vicki 0428 282282.

ONGERUP OP SHOP Fill a bag with clothes for $1 ! Wednesday 21st August from 9 am to 2 pm. Community Centre, Lamont Street.

TRY OUT SOME WARMING WINTER SOUPS

Cauliflower & Bacon Soup

1 onion chopped

1 small clove of garlic minced or garlic powder (optional)

3 rashers of bacon chopped (you want some with the fatty rib section as this is what gives you the flavour!)

1 whole cauliflower chopped roughly

Chicken stock

Cream

Cook the onion, bacon and garlic in a little olive oil until onion soft and bacon slightly renders. Add cauliflower, stir. Add enough stock to cover (roughly 4 cups). Cook until cauliflower collapses (about 20-30 minutes). Blitz until smooth with barmix or Thermomix. Add cream (about half a cup) and season. Easy as!!

Someone also asked me to post the Potato & Leek Soup from sport the other week. Similar to above really.

Potato & Leek Soup

1-2 leeks diced

1 small clove of garlic minced or garlic powder (optional)

1kg potatoes, peeled and diced about 1cm cubes

Chicken Stock

Cream

Cook the leek and garlic if using in a little olive oil until soft. Add potatoes, stir to coat. Add enough stock to cover (roughly 4 cups). Cook until potatoes are soft (about 20-30 minutes). Remove four big spoons of the mixture (about a third of mixture). Blitz until smooth with barmix or Thermomix. Add cream (about half a cup). Return remaining chunky mixture to soup and stir. Season. If its too thick you may have to loosen with a little bit more stock.

BRAIN TEASERS— First to email your correct answers to Bec will receive a barista coffee or milkshake at the Yongergnow Café

CRAFT GROUP & OP SHOP NEWS

On Wednesday August 14 the Craft Group hosted another Market Day. Stall holders included CH Creations, Wynter Designs and a Thermomix consultant from Jerramungup, Norwex and Crazy Creations from Albany, and local businesses The Farmhouse Baker and Hippy Hookers Crochet. There was soup for the hungry, cuppas for the thirsty and the Op Shop was open for the thrifty! We also had Yongergnow travel mugs, large home made jars of pickled onions and some catalogues from various businesses there to peruse.

The next Market Day is September 11. Please come along and support this community event!

A macrame workshop will be held soon! It will be $50 which includes all supplies and morning tea. Please contact Michelle on 0404 188542 to register your interest and once we have enough people, we will book a date!

There will also be a hand made fabric wildflower workshop with June Meredith on Wednesday 28th August. This is an old craft that combines many elements of fabric making to create amazing wildflowers. Please book with Sandy 0428 282941 as numbers are limited. Cost will be $4 for materials and $2 for craft room use.

THE LOST FLOWERS OF ALICE HART BY HOLLY RINGLAND.

This book was chosen by Roz, her second meeting this year due to the fact that September was supposed to be May but she is away. August was Mel's choice she ordered her books and they didn't arrive on time in fact they took forever to get here. So as Roz had her books already we gave them out and changed months. So the August meeting was held at Roz's on a Tuesday night as Roz was away for the Monday. Mel will now have her book club meeting on 9th September.

So Tuesday night saw six book clubbers gather at Roz's, a rather depleted crowd. But we had all read the book which had not happened for some time. We started the evening discussing the Essex Serpent which was last month's book in fact I think we discussed it more than at the actual meeting. We remembered that Marnie had had a pretty awful one as well.

There were mixed feelings over this month's book. Those who were into flowers loved that component, but two of us couldn't care less about flowers so this made no impact. We all felt the stories in the book were not completed enough and lots was left up in the air. The descriptions of the Australian country were written from somebody with a fond remembrance and so were lengthy and over the top. One reader loved most of it and gave it a 7 but mostly it scored 5. I personally found the book disturbing and hard to comprehend how women went from a violent father into a violent relationship. But we all found once you started you had to read until the end.

An enchanting and captivating novel, about how our untold stories haunt us - and the stories we tell ourselves in order to survive.

After her family suffers a tragedy, nine-year-old Alice Hart is forced to leave her idyllic seaside home. She is taken in by her grandmother, June, a flower farmer who raises Alice on the language of Australian native flowers, a way to say the things that are too hard to speak.

Under the watchful eye of June and the women who run the farm, Alice settles, but grows up increasingly frustrated by how little she knows of her family's story. In her early twenties, Alice's life is thrown into upheaval again when she suffers devastating betrayal and loss. Desperate to outrun grief, Alice flees to the dramatically beautiful central Australian desert. In this otherworldly landscape Alice thinks she has found solace, until she meets a charismatic and ultimately dangerous man.

Spanning two decades, set between sugar cane fields by the sea, a native Australian flower farm, and a celestial crater in the central desert, The Lost Flowers of Alice Hart follows Alice's unforgettable journey, as she learns that the most powerful story she will ever possess is her own.
