THE GRAPEVINE

October 3rd 2019

BUSY THURSDAY AT YONGERGNOW

Starting with the pre-harvest breakfast the early starters were coming in at 6 am for an expansive cooked spread as well as muesli pannacottas and fruit platters. Head count was 66 by the time Travis Hawkins started St. Johns first aid course at 9 o'clock. Meanwhile Carl Beck from Roadwise had been giving the safe driving behaviour message to all comers and the new Shire CEO Bob Jarvis and deputy Vin Lamont joined us to meet everyone and enjoy some breakfast with the crowd. Rodney Scott from CBH enjoyed catching with customers and locals alike.

It was a family affair when Elisa bought the pasta lab out for the kids to roll their magic dough and colour and shape it as well ! Huge thanks to all the helpers, Travis for an amazing first aid presentation, Elisa's fabulous pasta making, George on the BBQ and Bec and Dimity for great organising of all the events.

A huge thanks to our amazing sponsors CBH, Afgri, Ongerup Farm Supplies and Ongerup Tyre Service.

Have a walk around town and have a look at the SPRING ART TRAIL

Starting at Ongerup Tyres heading south and looking both sides of Eldridge Street :

1. Cottage garden junk sculpture and hut façade and early settlers garden—1 of 3 along the main street fashioned by creative artist Voytek and depicting different aspects of 100 years around Ongerup
2. Farming junk sculpture and Mediterranean plant garden—2 of 3
3. "Birds of Paradise" folk art pickets at old bank—Tim & Vicki's house
4. Centenary metal banner commemorating Ongerup's 100 years - started by John McDougall, Pingrup farmer/welder, and finished by Dave Taylor, blacksmith, woodworker and creative artist from Porongorups.
5. Kangaroo junk sculpture and native garden bed - 3 of 3
6. Corner shed verandah - Tracy has created some scrap metal birds and other arty pieces
7. Museum gate garden bed - sand bed planted with local native plants that won't grow in the hard clay inside museum grounds
8. White shed with recycled garden beds made by John and Josie with an amazing array of plants and garden sculpture
9. Ed's garden sculpture collection and colourful plantings, not to mention his colourful hippy car!
10. Caravan Park—Leanne and Steve have created a great looking entrance with large rocks and flower bed
11. Casa del Swalwell - Tracy has more creations made from recycled materials
12. Jenny's collection of bird tea-towels in a colourful display along the fence
13. Yongergnow mixed collection of sculptures at entrance and artworks in gallery
14. Sheep with a growing fleece and willy wagtail with recycled sheep yard gates at Sandy's duplex
15. Glenys and Graeme's garden collection with various pot holders one being a toilet pedestal
16. Ongerup Primary School - collage of bird prints created by the students located at the School entrance

TEAM LEADER

Team Leader

The Pingrup Community Resource Centre operates The Store Café 6343 and community resource centre. We have a wonderful existing team and are now looking for a Leader to consolidate and strengthen operations. It is a positive work environment and provides a fantastic service to the local community and visitors.

The role will include:

Financial

- Implement, monitor budgets and expenditure
- Regular ordering for the café. Due to our regional location this requires logistical juggling and pre-planning.
- Stock Control
- Implement processes and improvements as directed by the bookkeeper/auditor/accountant.

Human Resources

- Manage rosters, timesheets and pay for all staff - café & CRC.
- Manage staff and ensure key deliverables are being reached.
- Supervise Traineeship in conjunction with Committee.

Accountability & Reporting

Ensure achievement and timely reporting to

- Funding bodies such as Department Primary Industries and Regional Development
- Community Resource Committee & sub committees

Engagement & Adaptability

The Team Leader should have the adaptability to work across the business from organising events, checking library books to serving coffee.

- It is expected this person will maintain and develop strong relationships within the community.
- Manage staffing as required (café 7 Days)

This a new position and job hours can be flexible to suit applicant. The minimum expected commitment would be 3 days. Please note the café operates 7 days a week and the applicant would need to attend to staffing (roster changes) as required.

Please forward cover letter and resume to:

Pingrupcafe@gmail.com

To discuss the position further, please contact Stacey Newman, CRC Chair on:
