NOVEMBER BOOK CLUB REVIEW

11 NOVEMBER 2019 JILL BAILEY'S NEVER HAVE I EVER BY JOSHILYN JACKSON

Amy Whey is proud of her ordinary life and the simple pleasures that come with it—teaching diving lessons, baking cookies for new neighbors, helping her best friend, Charlotte, run their local book club. Her greatest joy is her family: her devoted professor husband, her spirited fifteen-year-old stepdaughter, her adorable infant son. And, of course, the steadfast and supportive Charlotte. But Amy's sweet, uncomplicated life begins to unravel when the mysterious and alluring Angelica Roux arrives on her doorstep one book club night sultry and magnetic, Roux beguiles the group with her feral charm. She keeps the wine flowing and lures them into a game of spilling secrets. Everyone thinks it's naughty, harmless fun. Only Amy knows better. Something wicked has come her way—a she-devil in a pricey red sports car who seems to know the terrible truth about who she is and what she once did. When they're alone, Roux tells her that if she doesn't give her what she asks for, what she deserves, she's going to make Amy pay for her sins. One way or another to protect herself and her family and save the life she's built, Amy must beat the devil at her own clever game, matching wits with Roux in an escalating war of hidden pasts and unearthed secrets. Amy knows the consequences if she can't beat Roux. What terrifies her is everything she could lose if she wins. A diabolically entertaining tale of betrayal, deception, temptation, and love filled with dark twists leavened by Joshilyn Jackson's trademark humor, Never Have I Ever explores what happens when the transgressions of our past come back with a vengeance.

This month's choice was Jill Bailey's so Monday night saw 8 of us head her way. We had two apologies. Jill invited the Jerramungup group to join us and there were 5 of them and one visitor. We all had to read the same book. So as usual we were a very noisy group with everybody talking and not much listening going on. As one member was quite late it took a while for us to actually get to the book. Most of us had read the book but a couple had not quite finished it. Everybody found it was an easy read. Everybody except two loved it and couldn't wait to read to the end, but we agreed we would not recommend it to any one although one member had done this. As everybody loved this book there doesn't seem to be a lot to say, the two who didn't find it badly written and guessed the end before they got there. They found the people involved not very nice. We discussed keeping secrets about your life from the past from your husband. We did not like the relationship between the female villain and a fourteen year old boy and discussed this. Most people liked the diving and the water references. The book rated mostly 8 with a couple of 10s and a couple of 5s.

Next month is May's choice and will be our Christmas party. It will be held on Sunday the 8th of December with an 11-30 start. May will be in contact with what to bring when she is back on track.

I thank Jill for a great night and lovely food, thanks to the Jerry girls for joining us we had a fun night.

FESTIVE ROAD SAFETY: THE FATAL FIVE

QUICK FACTS

Enjoy this Festive Season and if you are traveling, take care on the road.

The Issue:

The Festive Season is considered to be one of the most dangerous times to travel on Australian roads.

Each year, people are killed or seriously injured as they travel to see friends and family over the extended holiday break.

52 deaths took place on Australian roads during the Holiday period of 2017.
