AVOID DISTRACTION WHILE DRIVING THIS FESTIVE SEASON

Many of us spend a lot of time in the car during the festive season, travelling to holiday destinations or visiting family and friends.

It is a busy time of year, where it is easy to get distracted – especially behind the wheel.

Distractions come in all shapes and sizes, both inside and outside the vehicle, including mobile devices, noisy passengers, eating or drinking and events happening on the roadside.

Tips to prevent distractions include:

- turning off your mobile phone or switching it to the 'do not disturb while driving' setting,
- adjusting all vehicle controls such as radio/CD player/climate controls before setting off,
- setting your GPS system before setting off or asking a passenger to manage directions to your destination,
- placing books/documents/newspaper in the back/boot of your vehicle to reduce temptation to read whilst driving,
- asking other passengers to be quiet if you find you are distracted by them,
- choosing to take a break rather than eat or drink whilst driving.
- ensuring pets are properly restrained in the vehicle
- recognising what makes you distracted and avoid that activity when driving

Remember, distracted driving is dangerous. Take steps to limit your distractions and enjoy a safe and happy festive season.
