Community Feature - with Boyd Rae from Active Farmers

Where did you grow up?

Firstly, I was born in Katanning and grew up there attending Broomehill Primary School. I grew up on a broad acre wheat and sheep farm and my mum ran several businesses from the property including Wagga's Boarding Kennel which exposed me to customer interfacing at a young age.

What made you get into fitness?

I have always been an active person and enjoyed getting outdoors as much as possible, as I grew up it was all about hockey and BMX, later moving into motorcycles and footy. Strangely no one else in my family were into sports so I would have to bribe my sister with saved Easter eggs to play golf with me. While studying Business and Media I started working out at F45 in Albany and really enjoyed it; so much so that I then studied Fitness and became a personal trainer.

What's your favourite thing about Active Farmers?

My heart however still belonged to the country life so I devised a way to fill that void and travel out to the country; enter Active Farmers. My favourite thing about Active Farmers would be the moment when a participant does something that they didn't believe they could do; the look on their face is of pure joy which is priceless.

What's your one piece of advice for someone wanting to get fit and healthy?

For those looking to make a change in their life, my advice would be to make small sustainable changes that you can build upon. A lot of people will make a sudden drastic change and most of the time it will not last, however if you make achievable, sustainable goals, you will crush those goals, feel good doing it!

What are 3 random facts about yourself?

I'm allergic to crustaceans, I've had two yabbies in my life and they are delicious

I hate the feeling of seatbelts, and my favourite exercise is the AB Wheel roll out.

What's your favourite quote?

"Don't stop until you're proud", that and "give me two more reps" - Boyd Rae

Did You Know?

Walt Disney's Frozen is inspired by Hans Christian Anderson's "The Snow Queen", and the names of four of the film's main characters—Hans, Kristoff, Anna and Sven—were intended (especially when spoken quickly, in that order) as a tribute to him.

Ongerup General Store, here to save the day, still has toilet paper on its shelves.

As the supermarket shelves dry up, a thousand farm wife's voices can be heard as they gaze lovingly at their two fridges, three freezers and coolroom, all fully stocked with wares that has not seen daylight since 2004 or beyond.
