SHIRE OF GNOWANGERUP

Signage in the Shire of Gnowangerup

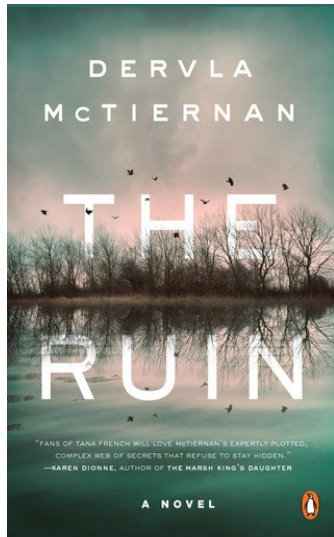

The Shire has noticed a large number of regulatory road signs (speed, stop signs, give way) and advisory signs that have been knocked down over the past few months. We understand that accidents can happen, especially when large machinery is being moved along our roads. We are asking that if you knock over a sign or see one already down that you report this so it can be fixed as soon as possible and not cause a road safety issue.

Regulatory signs are the responsibility of Main Roads all other signs belong to Local Government however, we are happy to assist in the reporting of damaged signs in an effort to keep our road users safe.

To report regulatory signs down, you can either contact Main Roads on 138 138 or visit <https://www.mainroads.wa.gov.au/Pages/complaintsFeedback.aspx>. You can also report the issue to the Shire Depot on 9827 1338.

For further information or enquiries regarding this please contact Yvette Wheatcroft, Manager of Works on 0439 791 925 or email Yvette.wheatcroft@gnowangerup.wa.gov.au

JULY 2020 BOOK CLUB HELD AT GAIL VAUX'S.

THE RUIN BY DERVLA MCTIERNAN.

It's been twenty years since Cormac Reilly discovered the body of Hilaria Blake in her crumbling Georgian home. But he's never forgotten the two children she left behind...

When Aisling Conroy's boyfriend Jack is found in the freezing black waters of the river Corrib, the police tell her it was suicide. A surgical resident, she throws herself into study and work, trying to forget - until Jack's sister Maude shows up. Maude suspects foul play, and she is determined to prove it. DI Cormac Reilly is the detective assigned with the re-investigation of an 'accidental' overdose twenty years ago - of Jack and Maude's drug - and alcohol-addled mother. Cormac is under increasing pressure to charge Maude for murder when his colleague Danny uncovers a piece of evidence that will change everything...

I chose this Book after listening to Dervla talk about the release of her third book The Good Turn. Dervla McTiernan has a deft way of creating characters that ring very true to life. Flawed, complicated and wonderfully human, I felt very deeply for the characters of this story. The title of this book works on multiple levels. In English, the word ruin means devastation and downfall. I have read all three and loved them all. I found the second one not as good as the other two.

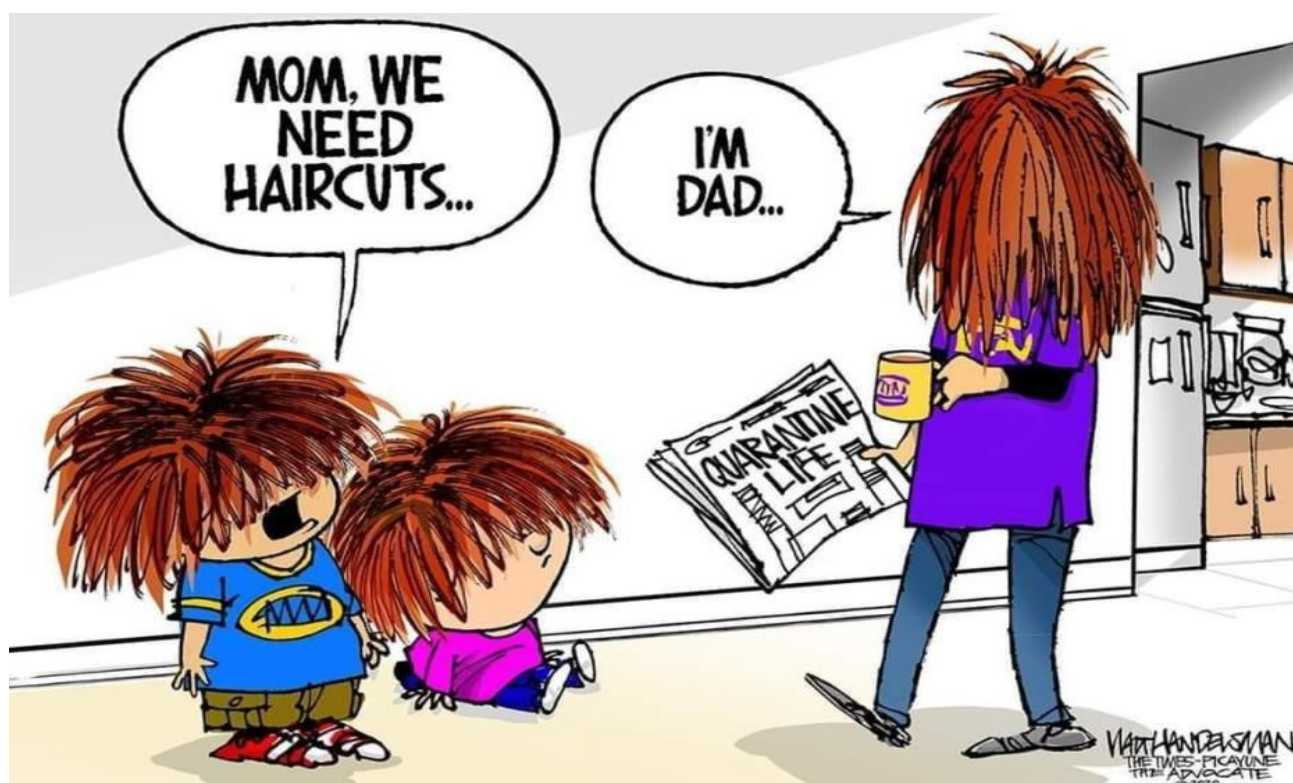

Monday night saw 8 of us gather to discuss this book. We had very special guest, Marnie bought Obe-lia to be introduced to us all. She is beautiful. Congratulations Marnie Hannes and Jasper.

We had three apologies, we hope Leanne is feeling better. Unfortunately Brooke retired from our group but hopes to catch up at the Christmas meeting. We will miss her input. We had all read the book, two of us so long ago that we forgot what it was about. One had not finished it. We all found it an easy read although found the number of characters confusing. All of us enjoyed it and found that it was not predictable and did not guess the ending. Sandy liked that it was set in Galway as it was one place they got to visit when they went to Ireland.

For a book with difficult subjects, children's homes in the 90's, child abuse, corrupt Police officers and murder we didn't spend much time talking about the book. Although we can't wait to read the other two. This book rated 8.

Supper was a sad affair as I had just got back from 10 days break. It consisted of Tim Tams - two and a half packets were consumed so I don't think anybody complained.

Next Book Club will be held at Sandy's on 10TH AUGUST AT 8 P.M.
