PROPOSED CHILDCARE MOVE TO SPORTING COMPLEX Thank you to those who dropped by today to see our plans for the new childcare facility at the complex. We received a couple of great suggestions which we will investigate. We will now proceed to draw up plans to submit to the Childcare body in Perth and then to the Shire, whilst we await the tick of approval from the Commonwealth government.

BIRD TALK

Last week Maggie was taken to the Mt Barker vet to have her leg, which was injured last year, checked.

December 2019 she was found to have a fractured leg so she was rushed to the vet and had a cast put in place. The cast was removed and the leg had healed exceptionally well. Maggie's condition has not deteriorated and she still manages to fly and get around with a limp. A big thank you to the vet for their on-going support and to Stevi for her care and transport of Maggie.

Complete the NSPNR: Your Region, Your Input Community Survey in July

How do you feel about the soil, air, waterways, native plants and animals in our area? North Stirlings Pallinup Natural Resources (NSPNR), the natural resource management office in Borden, wants to know!

NSPNR is inviting the community to take part in the NSPNR: Your Region, Your Input survey. Each completed and eligible survey will go into a draw for a prize thanks to The Pub Borden, Wescape Photography and Graze Great Southern.

The survey is open to residents in the Shire of Gnowangerup and the localities of Broomehill East and Gnowellen from 1 July to 31 July 2020. You can fill it in online by scanning the QR code (at right) with your smartphone or going to

<https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/NSPNR1>

Or you can pick up a hardcopy survey from the Shire of Gnowangerup office or one of many shops in the area, or contact Laura Page (below). Watch for the flyer in your mailbox.

NSPNR will use the results of the survey to better understand how residents feel about natural resource management, how successfully NSPNR is delivering, and what we could do in the future. Thanks to our regional NRM organisation South Coast NRM for funding the survey and Clear South for managing the project.

For more information or a hardcopy survey contact Laura Page, Project Officer, 0401 553 285 laura@nspnr.com.au
