The Signature of All Things- Elizabeth Gilbert

Ongerup book club review

Everything about life intrigues Alma Whittaker. Her passion for botany leads her far from home, from London to Peru to Tahiti, in pursuit of that rare specimen: knowledge. But as her careful studies draw her deeper into the mysteries of evolution, she meets the man who she will come to love – whose perspective, radically different from her own, will transform the way she understands the world.

Radiating with all the heart, soul and earthiness as its unforgettable heroine, The Signature of All Things is a captivating celebration of the workings of this world, and the mechanisms behind all life.

To postpone or not was the question due to our lovely weather conditions and the state of the roads, but alas 5 ladies, including long lost Brooke, came out in the extremes to accept the challenge of getting to Mel's home. Mulled wine and home cooked sausage rolls to warm the belly, were on offer as they slid in the gate to discuss our latest book.

There where a few who did not start and a couple who got halfway and 3 who finished this saga of a story. Gilbert's writing was full of history and is a great story, do not judge this author by her previous book 'Eat, Pray, Love', if you have read it and did not like it. One to take time with and enjoy! Overall, it was an 8/10.
