ONGERUP BOWLING CLUB

The Ongerup Bowling Club season has started up with having our first scroungers game down at Borden because our Ongerup resurfacing programme is still under way, anyone wanting to get a lift to Borden on these nights meet up at the Bowls Club at 5.45pm, (will have to see if their lights are fixed for this week) and we are hoping that we will be able to play on our Ongerup surface by the end of October or early Nov. It's been a big effort for everyone involved, and there's been great support for all the busy bee's held. So let's hope our Bowls membership will be bigger and better for further years. The Pennant season starts this Sat 16th Oct. Ladies will play out at Jerramungup and the men over at Broomehill. The men's team is very short on players for this week so if you'd like to have a go contact our Captains Mick Creagh & Robyn Hams - So let's go Bowlers – for a great season.

On Sunday 17th is the Men's 20/21 league Singles & Triples at Broomehill. Also the Ladies Singles. We wish both Geordie Johnson & Michelle Bamess all the best with their singles, and at the present we're not sure who can represent Ongerup in the Triples. Hopefully this will go ahead so we can catch up on last year's events before the season gets too far. Then next week Saturday 23rd the Men 2nd round of pennants play at Gnowangerup & Ladies play at Tambellup. So let's hope more men will be available, to get some serious Bowls in.

We're not bluffing, these walks are stunning.

Download the Stirling Range Trails App for complete information, maps, photos, and guides on all the walks, drives, and wildflowers.

Choose from a range of activities, from family walks through to advanced hikes, perfect for anyone that appreciates fresh air and stunning mountain views.

Horsepower Highway

This fabulous new attraction is a feature of the Horsepower Highway. An initiative by the Gnowangerup 360 group, it runs from Gnowangerup down the Formby South Road and features an array of vintage tractors and engines from bygone years. The tanks were painted with portraits of inspirational women from Gnowangerup and features Lucinda the pink tractor.
