Yongergnow CRC news

Busy times here at the Yongergnow Centre - last week mixed medium artist Louise Snook ran a mosaic workshop, 6 lucky participants created their very own mosaic masterpiece to take home.

Our art gallery is a riot of colourful prints by Ravensthorpe botanical artist Lynell Belli. Beautiful prints and cards of her paintings are displayed to view and to purchase.

A very busy bee was held last week to tidy up around the aviaries and outside fence to make our Centre safer from the risk of fire and much neater to look at.

Sundays continue to be very busy both with tourists and locals alike.

Sarah has updated our menu to include a sweet chilli chicken wrap and quiche Lorraine or you can try one of our many choices of delicious food and yummy chips. As always the coffee combo specials are ongoing.

We have a very friendly pair of dugites hanging around the aviaries so everyone is encouraged to make lots of noise when heading out to visit the Malleefowl!!

Come up and see us we are open Tuesday to Sunday, browse the Library, grab a coffee and some lunch we would love to see you.

Please take a few minutes to complete the survey for our CRC.

Feedback from the public helps shape the future funding we receive and helps shape the direction we take as your CRC
