Ongerup bowls notes

The Ongerup bowling club wishes everyone a Happy Christmas and a safe but Merry New Year.

Although there hasn't been much bowls played at Ongerup this season so far, both Men & Ladies have been taking part in their Pennant games at the other greens within the league. The men had to forfeit their game that was to be played against Borden a few weeks ago once harvest got under way, But come this Saturday the Men will play against Broomehill here in Ongerup, on the new green. It's been a long wait but let's hope it will bring out some good bowling. In January let's hope Ongerup can have some bowlers to take part in the Borden Glenelg pairs – 4th Jan, then Borden Triples – 27th Jan. Then there's the Ongerup Mixed Triple's in Ongerup – 16th Jan. (get your teams ready) plus the next round of Pennants for men on the 15th Jan then both Men & Ladies – 22nd Jan. Some men are taking part in the ILRR Kulin – 7th-9th Jan, Men's league pairs & fours – 23rd, Ladies ILRR fours @ Katanning 28th-30th Jan. Good luck to you all & keep these dates on your calendar to keep our bowls club rolling and if you see anyone up there on a Friday night come join us for scroungers – then I'll see you in the New Year.

ONGERUP BOOK CLUB

We wound up 2021 by having the Xmas book club meeting at the Nyabing Pub on Sunday 5th December. Many thanks to Rose for transporting us on the school bus first to the Pingrup Pantry for morning tea then onto Nyabing for lunch. We reviewed this month's book 'The Nightingale' by Kristin Hannah, which was Georgia's choice. The story follows two sisters in France during the German occupation in World War II. Very well written with often shocking descriptions of shocking events. One sister stayed in her occupied village and her husband went to the front line and was captured and sent to POW camp. She had a German officer billeted in her house who she developed a strange closeness to under the circumstances. The other sister, fiery and headstrong, refused to accept the passive role taken by most others and joined with the resisters in their secret organization. The book scored well with the majority of our readers. Average score was 9.3/10 !

We voted on the monthly books read during the year. Way out front was 'Where the Crawdads Sing' by Delia Owens with 18 points and coming in equal 2nd with 9 points each were 'The Wife and the Widow' by Christian White and 'The Nightingale'. With the departure of our long time member Gail earlier in the year, there has been a definite lack of book reporting from the rest of us. Not sure we can fill Gail's big shoes! Welcome to our new members to the group and Merry Xmas to all readers.
