Sealed Souls comes to Bremer Bay

FRIDAY 19 AUGUST 6-8PM

BREMER BAY SPORTS CLUB

Join us for an evening of salty sea tales of Australia's wild southern coastline with John Robertson, author of the newly released book: Sealed Souls.

This fascinating book chronicles the whaling and sealing industry that sprung along coast between 1798-1852, including right here in our own backyard at Doubtful Island Bay.

This FREE event is organised by your local Community Resource Centre team.

One week of workshops and training

Yongergnow Centre has been super busy in the last week. we hosted a variety of workshops for the Community! On Friday 14 people attend our Farm safety workshop in collaboration with Rural edge; part of the course was funded by Australian Government - Building Better Regions grants. Participants covered all aspects of farm safety and gained a greater awareness of their responsibilities to farm staff, family and visitors.

If you missed out, NSPNR will be running a similar Safety course in Borden on the 17th August 2022.

Tuesday we welcomed 22 people to our NSPNR Fox baiting course; training was delivered by DPIRD Biosecurity Officer Peter Hennig. Attendees gained their certification to purchase and use fox baits which will hopefully combat the rising fox numbers in our district. Catering was sponsored by Elders. For more information about fox baiting and permits please visit:

www.agric.wa.gov.au/baits-poisons/registered-pesticide-permits
Thank-you to NSPNR staff and volunteers for the successful event.

Wednesday we hosted an accredited First Aid Training course. The course was presented by St John's Albany trainer Graham Johns . You can see him in action in this photo as he was showing the participants how to respond to a (pretend) catastrophic wound.

One more course to go to finish off an extremely busy week: tomorrow we will be holding a parenting workshop called "Fears and Worries".

Little Learners New Building

After 2 and half long years, Ongerup Little Learners new centre is completed and we couldn't be happier!

There were many challenges and hurdles to cross, including the impact Covid had on construction and finding a way to comply with both educational licensing and public building requirements; all whilst trying to meet the needs of the community and provide a fun place for the children to come together. Needless to say, it has been rather stressful and time consuming for all those involved, and we would like to especially thank Jan Slee, Tina Harding, Sally Carpenter and Marnie Köhler who managed the project from start to finish. We are forever grateful for their dedication and perseverance in order to bring this centre to life. Also thank you to Anderson Dufty Builders and Redgum Carpentry, for creating our learning wonderland. Everyone's hard work has certainly paid off and will be enjoyed for many years to come!

Our first session in the Centre was last Friday, and the children where more than excited to explore and discover all the environment had to offer. When asked what their favourite thing was some said they enjoy the larger play space for their home-corner, while others enjoy the outdoor art space and nature playground, but they all love the dry creek bed and bridge; which had them searching for fish and other water creatures they hoped had washed up with the rain!

All in all, the children agreed it was the best day at Little Learners ever! But don't take our word for it, come and see for yourself. We are open every Friday of the school Term from 830am to 4pm at the back of the Sporting Complex.

Once again Thankyou to everyone who helped create this magical and welcoming learning place for the young children of our community!

National Science Week – Friends' Event Sat 13 - Sun 14 August 2022

National Science Week is Australia's annual celebration of science and technology. This year the Friends of the Fitzgerald River National Park are holding the following activities to encourage an interest in science pursuits. Both members and the general public are welcome to attend, and we encourage younger people to come along and be fascinated by this exceptional national park.

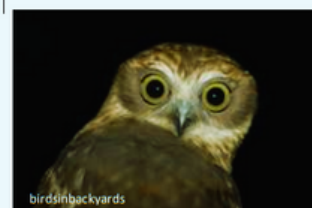

Saturday 13th August at Point Ann:

10 am – Morning tea (byo), meet at Point Ann picnic/bbq area.

11 am – Point Ann whale watching. Cetacean researcher, Dr Kate Sprogs, will talk about whales and dolphins as they migrate along the South Coast. Bring binoculars.

1 pm – Discover Hooded Plovers. Join local bird enthusiast, Anne Gadsby, as she searches the known hiding places for these vulnerable shore birds. Meet at Point Ann picnic/bbq area.

7.30 pm – Owl hunt. Vanessa Lipanin, FRNP Senior Operations Officer and owl enthusiast, will guide a search for these night predators near the Twertup Field Studies Centre. Bring walking shoes and torch.

Sunday 14th August at Twertup:

8.30 am – Botanical walk. Join local botanist, Dr Gillian Craig on a 4 km walk starting at the Twertup Field Studies Centre. Bring walking shoes, hat and water.

Note: Access to Twertup is via a 10 km 4WD track from Quiss Rd/ Pabelup Dr which is closed during wet soil conditions. Point Ann may also be closed in wet weather. These events will be held from the Quaalup Homestead Wilderness Retreat if there are road closures. Please check www.fitzgeraldcoast.com.au/explore/road-closures.aspx and the Friends' website www.fitzgeraldfriends.org.au for updates.

This is a bring your own everything event. Overnight shared accommodation is available at the Twertup Field Studies Centre (max 16 beds) or byo swag/ tent (limited to 30 people total) – bookings essential. Please RSVP to admin@fitzgeraldfriends.org.au to book Saturday night at Twertup. If the event is moved due to wet weather, overnight accommodation must be booked directly with the Quaalup Homestead Wilderness Retreat on 9837 4124.
