St John Ambulance Gnowangerup

held a thank a volunteer event at the Borden Pub last Saturday night. We had an amazing turn out from the community in support of our volunteers in green. A huge thank you to Gina and Steve for hosting the night. We raised over $1000 towards purchasing a new Corpulse for our Ambulance in Gnowangerup. Thank you everyone who came and supported this event we love what we do but it is lovely to be appreciated.

A letter from Yongergnow's resident malleefowl Valentine & Juliet:

Our dearest Ongerupians.

Thankyou to all of the locals who have come to visit us and check out our newly renovated aviary since our last grapevine letter. The last few weeks have been pretty steady, playing in the sand, getting use to one another and listening to the seeders going. We hear our fellow farmers are pretty happy now it has finally rained! We are happy too, now the Yongergnow board might begin the aviary revegetation they have promised us!?

Now it has been brought to our attention that you might not know Yongergnows secret? Well we are here to tell it!

There is another one of us! Yongergnows third resident 'lonely boy' was born in Yongergnows aviary in January last year. The offspring of 'Valentine' and her late partner 'Spud' (Juliet's brother! Talk about small town syndrome) Whilst not on display, 'lonely boy' enjoys the staffs attention, meal worms and keeping everyone guessing at to his sex. Named by ... 'lonely boy' has recently been tested to determine wether in fact he is a male or female! And we have news!!!! It's a boy!

For any other top secret news come visit us! While we may seem shy to the tourists we love you locals beautiful faces, join up to become a member so that you can visist us on the regular and see the upcoming newsletter and up to date (we hear the board are working on finding some friends for 'lonely boy' and an upcoming collaboration with another one of your favorite places to go!)

Love always,

Valentine & Juliet ❤️

Toddler Time

Outer space came to Yongergnow today, our toddlers had a busy time learning about the galaxy, and its planets. They made cardboard roll telescopes, looked through a real telescope, sang songs about the moon and made playdough planets. Dressing up as astronauts and playing in a pretend rocket ship was the best fun.
