'Our Back Roads' Exhibition Opening

Many thanks to the 80 people who attended the opening of Yongergnows art exhibition 'Our Back Roads' on September 6th the exhibition references two events, the soon to be televised ABC 'Back Roads' episode featuring Ongerup and Yongergnow, along with the Gnowangerup Shires own Wild Gravel Event. Fortunately the exhibition also coincided with the Ongerup Wildflower season and other local events during the spring season. The exhibition is on until October 20th so be sure to check it out!

This event also coincided with the Ongerups P&C wine night fundraiser showcasing Shepherds Hut Wines. Laura Wishart spoiled guests with delicious tastings and the opportunity to order with a commission of sales going to the P&C. This was a great collaboration and celebration for our community.

Many, many, many thanks to the event sponsors!

Entertainment by Darlene da silva and Shenai Johnston set the mood

Dani, Jane and Mat cooked up a storm with pizzas featuring local protein, bushfoods, and Mel's fresh produce each named after roads within the district.

Ongerup Farm Supplies and Ongerup tyres and Automotive sponsored refreshments throughout the night in support of the community collaborative evening.

James of Cullen Rural Agencies conducted an auction of items kindly donated with proceeds going towards the Ongerup P&C and Yongergnow. This was a great fundraiser for both organisations and a lot of fun! Many thanks to the auction item sponsors.

Huge shoutout to the 21 local artists who displayed a total of 51 art pieces into the exhibition. Our art judges were hard at work judging then selecting the pieces for awards kindly donated from sponsors.

Kohat 'Highly Commended': Sheep in the Laneway: Bronwyn Gaze

Stirling Ranges Beef 'People's Choice': Misty Morning Backroad: Lyndall Hanbury

Vestas 'Emerging Artist': Workboots: Taite O'Neill

First National Real Estate 'Highly Acquisitive Award': Misty Morning Backroad: Lyndall Hanbury

Two other awards were presented during the evening which we look forwards to announcing soon.

Many thanks to the many businesses, volunteers and organisations who helped to make the event possible and for the communities ongoing support of Yongergnow and the Malleefowl.

Be sure to renew your Yongergnow membership for the thorough event reports, to keep up to date with the centre news, and in support of Yongergnow.

A letter from Yongergnow's resident malleefowl Valentine & Juliet:

Our dearest Ongerupians,

Well well well, it has been a while and we have so much to tell! We are very much enjoying spring & it has brought us so many new and friendly faces to visit us. The centre has been inundated with bus tours, our new Café supervisor Jo has been busy with catering & we have many new faces behind the counter.

Talking about new friends... we have been enjoying our late night antics in the peace & quiet with no one to witness our mischief, well until the awesome late-night-art-hanging-crew of Sarah, Sandy, Bronwyn & Emily were preparing for the art exhibition heard the evidence of our new feathered friends who pop in and say hi during the evening! They may not be mallee but they sure are fowl!

What an awesome night the art exhibition was! We enjoyed the darling Darlene's beautiful voice & rocked it out to our fellow Ongerupian, Shenai's country jams. What a rockstar going from Ongerup to Nashville; we are not so sure if our wings would fly that far..

Art, music & wine sure are the recipe for open pockets! The auction started off with so much excitement that it called for a false start. What an array of items! From accommodation to photography vouchers, merch to baked goodies & even some wood to keep you all warm. Our clever little minds calculated over $4,000 of donations for both us and the kids on the other side of the bush!

Such a fun night, thank you to everyone who sponsored, attended or assisted, we love any help, & we know our Yongergnow board will be very happy with the outcome. So much so that we noticed the last cars not leave until the next day.

Spring is upon us, there are many beautiful wildflowers and orchids within Yongergnow's sanctuary. This warmer weather also brought back our fellow friend 'Kate' the snake, so if mother nature could please bring a final finishing rain for you fellow farmers that would also keep Kate away for a little while longer...

Ongerup offers so much for visitors during the spring season, Bus tours and travellers were welcomed not only to Yongergnow but also, we heard the Ongerup Museum & Wildflower Show was amazing as always, people have been spoiled by meals at the Ongerup Hotel & there are whispers of another food provider back on the block real soon! We enjoyed the spring visitors so much that we felt sorry for Monty missing out on all of the fun that our kind friend Don released him with us! The three of us all now on display for you to visit & now we have three sets of eyes & ears to report to you!

Love always,

Valentine & Juliet ❤
