ONGERUP BOWLS NOTES

The Ladies played Inter League over at Esperance last weekend and fun was had by all - we also played some good bowls! Our Central Stirling team had 2 aggregate wins, plus a lot of close encounters. Congratulations to Jade O'Neill being picked in the Interzone team to play in Kalgoorlie in March. Jade is Ongerup's Ladies single champ and she's playing off for the League singles this Saturday at Jerry - good luck Jade ! Also it's a huge thanks to Alyce Langdon for travelling across to Esperance with April so she could play in the 3 days inter League event with us, we have elected her the "Mother of the Year" ! Wouldn't it be great if we could get more younger people to play? Come along to scroungers and have a go. Our men had a great win against Gnow White on Saturday and it is looking good for Ongerup to stay in the finals. Men have a bye this weekend then it's off to Country Week for the men, good luck !

Morning Tea at the New Ongerup Lunch Bar. Can I throw out the suggestion for those that are interested -- that we meet up at the Ongerup Lunch Bar for a coffee & whatever every Sunday morning around 10.15am onwards. It'll be a great chance to casually meet a few others in town and there's no obligation to attend - just when ever you can, so if it's every Sunday we're bound to meet someone else there on and off. If there's a group please notify the Lunch Bar or you might not get a cake! If this works we could even end up with a lovely Devonshire Tea when they get an oven. --- blame me if this doesn't work, I'd love to get to know more of the people that live in our town. --- Vicki O'Neill

There are still some spots available at this FREE community workshop. This is a great opportunity to get upskilled and help make change in our region.
