ONGERUP BOWLS NOTES

Last Saturday our Ladies:- Jade, Robyn, April & Vicki played off in the Pennant finals out at Jerramungup, we won our first game against Gnowangerup then after lunch challenged Jerramungup for the flag, and after a very close game Ongerup went down by one point! – phew that was close!! Our Ladies all played well but we just couldn't get that final end. And how special it was that our men bowlers, oops and ladies, travelled out to support us.

The Men play at Ongerup this Saturday against Tambellup, no pressure guys but you must win this one to stay in the top 4.

The club welcomes anyone to come along to scroungers every Friday night, it's a very social night and a good way to just have a go to see if you like bowls, then stay on for a sausage sizzle to end the night. Check with a member to make sure it's not one of those nights when no-one is going!

Toddler Time

Todays session was held at the Ongerup playground with a fun play in the park.

Katie would love to see more Mums and bubs there so if you have a different time that suits you better could you please let Katie know . She would love to see you there and is happy to change the day if it works better.

Douglas (Dougle, Douges, Possum McLeod)

was born in Geraldine, New Zealand on 11 Sept 1948 to Helen Isabella McLeod (nee Perkins) and Philip Neil McLeod. He was little brother to Kit, Bill, Margaret, Angus, Mary, Janet and Roddy. At the age of 4, they moved from Geraldine to Cloudy Station- truly amazing country that Aussies can't understand. This was where Doug's love of working with sheep and love of dogs began.

Jackeroo, shearer, bowler, fishing, Eagles man, happy, huge laugh, low stress. Husband to Anna. Dad to Douglas and Tanya. Father-in-law to Mary and Greg. Pop to Chase, Alec, Jarrah, Daisy, Macie, Harry, Charlotte, Lachlan. Friend to many. He went away to boarding school after his Mum couldn't home school him any longer. At the age of 14, Doug lost his father in a boating accident, which led to him leaving school to help on the farm

This was about when he started enjoying a beer, and he was given his first pouch of tobacco. In the late 60s, the family sold the farm, and Doug was talked ... to heading off to Australia with his brother Roddy and a couple of mates on a hell of a boat ride. Some short stints on the east coast before heading West in 1970 with his mates Slim Savage. Firstly to Perth, then to Paraburdoo, (short-lived, too bloody HOT!) Then to the South he went, into his main passion of sheep. Initially at Genella at Gairdner, then to the main Wemyss Estate, northwest of Ongerup. The start of his 53 years in Ongerup. He spoke fondly of his time there and the blokes he worked there with- Winnie, Goddard, Udelle and Bob Hicks to name a few.

In 1974, in the Ongerup pub, he was introduced to a new fiery Irish barmaid working for JR. This was around the time Dad picked up a handpiece and shone with the likes of Slob, TC and Ferret to name a few.

Douglas and Anna were married in January 1975. In the summer of 75 son Douglas (known as Jack to many) was born. Later, Tanya was born on St Patrick's Day in 77.

They lived 2 doors down from the pub: pretty convenient-shearers one side and the Woods (the Noongar crew) on the other side. Doug would have a beer with all of them.

In the early 80s, Doug and Anna took over the shearing run and moved into the new house in Eldridge Street. It was a hell of a time in Ongerup in the 80s; shearing was booming (Ida Valley), triathlon was developed, Ongerup Shears (which Doug was heavily involved in- he ended up becoming a shearing judge) and the footy team was winning.

This was the decade that Doug got into his bowls- being the greenkeeper, Captain and President at various times. Was also the cheapest beer in time and on tap. Always putting his hand up to go to the tournament and Country week.

They moved from town to Jinda to oversee a farm for Fred House: 5-7000 wethers on the property. It was a decade of fun. This was due to the people that Doug and Anna were friends with; Martins, Pinneys, Browns, McLeod's (Maori crew), Rogers, Wellstead's, and some kiwi family even turned up. Then the 90s changed the face of the sheep industry and life in general. Doug got hold of the dipping run, which was fairly cranking. Son Jack home from school went to work in the sheds and helped with the dipping – there was no other option.

Life was tougher- 12% unemployment and 17% interest rates.

Over the years, he started to slow down- his hands hurt, his shoulders hurt, his body wasn't happy. As this went on, he never complained about anything, just went on with what he had to do.

Times were spent doing a lot of driving around the farm, checking the sheep, driving into town for a beer with Jonesy and Johnny, fishing trips, going for drives with the caravan.

He didn't need much of an excuse to go for a drive. He just loved cruising around.

Approx 3 yrs ago they made their final move to Haxby and by now he had figured out how to turn off his hearing aids, anytime he didn't want to hear what he was being told, generally by Anna.

On the morning of 30th December, Doug slipped away with Anna by his side - no more pain.

Thanks to the Albany Palliative care team for your help. And special thanks to Anna and Tanya for caring for Doug right to the end. It's hard work dealing with a stubborn mule. "Don't worry about it, it'll be alright."
