MUSEUM NOTES

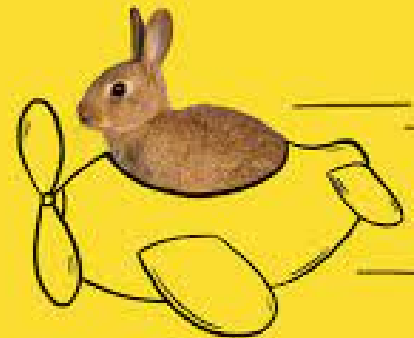

What a great response I had from volunteers to help with the Museums collection policy program on Wednesday, David the curator from The Princess Royal Military Museum took us through the steps to commence entering the items into the Collections WA program. Thank you very much, I now feel we can catch up with the times. Also a big thanks to Tim O'Neill for setting up the generator to enable us to continue with our day. Vicki O'Neill, Ongerup Museum Curator.

BOWLS NOTES: The Ongerup Bowls club is holding their season's closing day this Sunday 13th April, sponsored by Sound Life Financial (Thelma Jaekel) & Tarbunkenup Farming. We will commence at 11.30am with a welcome sausage sizzle then commence play around 12.30pm. This will be a social afternoon of mixed play so we welcome anyone who wishes to take part. The day will finish with an evening meal & presentation of the year's trophies.

How does the Easter Bunny travel?

THE WORLD IN WORDS

We are excited to invite you to our day time book club launch at Yongergnow CRC on the 17th of April
10AM!

High tea will be served!

"The Chamberlain family used to be close. Charlie and Daphne were happily married, and their children Laura, Scott and Nick were inseparable. But then, inevitably, the children grew up and their own messy lives got in the way. Since Daphne died, Charlie can't help but think about happier times for the family. For his eightieth birthday, all Charlie wants is to bring his family together again. So, for the first time in along time, the Chamberlains are going on a family holiday! Its only ten days - how bad could it be? "

What's happening at your CRC

The inaugural meeting of the CRC Garden Club took place this morning. A small group of enthusiastic ladies met to plan a gathering and talk about what the club could look like. It was decided that a garden visit will be happening at Rose Tiller's place on Monday 5th May starting with a cuppa at 10 am. Call Mel Hawkins at YG-CRC 98 282325 if you are interested.

DAYTIME BOOK CLUB come along next Thursday 17th April 10 am to our first daytime book club, enjoy a cuppa, cake and a chat with fellow readers.

Kids Club got together yesterday to do some Easter activities. Our kids had fun decorating Easter cookies, colouring Easter egg pictures and making play dough Easter eggs.
